3) Why do you want to work at Luna?

Luna Puzzlers??

There are seven light bulbs out all over Luna. Tina (your boss) remarks, "These light bulbs sure do burn out quickly. We run to the store every week. [Insert your name] please go to Hiller Hardware and get some light bulbs. Here is $10.00." When you get there they come in packs of four and are on sale for $3.25. Considering all of the information presented, exactly what do you bring back to Luna and why?

Our exchange policy is as follows:

Luna will gladly exchange within two weeks with receipt and tags attached. Absolutely no refunds. Our policy is stamped on every receipt, posted at every register and hung in every dressing room. It is 6:37p.m. and you are getting ready to close the store and the manager has left for the day. A woman walks in to return a dress. It is in a Luna bag and she has the receipt, but the tags are no longer attached. She wants a refund because it does not fit her daughter and they live out of town. Step by step how would you deal with this customer?
